

LESSON - 2

FAMILY AND HOME

Notes

Summary:

This chapter portrays a typical ordinary family through Bembem's family. Her parents earn for them and also look after them strictly. Her affectionate grandparents help to nurture the young minds of their grandchildren by telling stories to them. They also teach them to cultivate good habits like waking up early and going for morning walks. Their love, affection and co-operation make their home very cosy, comfortable and secure.

Learning Motives:-

1. This chapter imparts the children the value of home and family in one's life.
2. It also aims to inculcate the young minds to become responsible people and contribute to the betterment of the society specially to root out poverty from the world.

Glossary:

typical - serving as a type portray - make a picture of nurture - the act or process to help develop cultivate - to acquire, develop or refine

imparts - to make known

inculcate - to instill or implant an idea or virtue

root - out - to remove completely

