

LESSON-6

CHRISTMAS WITH A DIFFERENCE

SOLUTIONS:

I. Answer the following questions:

Q.1. Who was the first to wake on Christmas morning?

Ans: Jo was the first to wake on Christmas morning.

Q.2. What was under Meg's pillow?

Ans: A green covered book was under Meg's pillow.

Q.3. What did their mother want them to do with the books?

Ans: Their mother wanted them to read, love and mind the books.

Q.4. Who came to their house?

Ans: A poor person came to their house.

Q.5. What did the girls do when their mother came inside?

Ans: When their mother came inside the girls wished their mother Merry Christmas and thanked her for the books.

Q.6. What did the mother tell them before breakfast?

Ans: The mother told them that a poor woman with a little new-born baby lived not far away.

She had six children huddled into one bed to keep them away from freezing, for they had neither fire nor warm clothes. They had been suffering from hunger and cold.

Q.7. Who called the girls "Angel Children"?

Ans: The poor woman called the girls "Angel Children".

Q.8. For whom was their mother collecting clothes?

Ans: Their mother was collecting clothes for the poor Hummels.