V. Let's do:

Make groups of two and fill in the blanks with suitable words. The words are given under the nest. You can use a word more than once.

Mema and her brother Bimol are in their garden. They are looking at the nest on the tree. The baby birds are waiting for their mother. The mother bird has got some worms in her beak. She will feed her children. Mema says, "They are my birds." Bimol says, "They are my birds." Then, mother comes out and says to Mema, "These are neither your birds nor his birds. They are not even our birds. These birds belong to everybody."
