

CLASS IX-X
ENGLISH GRAMMAR
PART II - LESSON 3
THE FUTURE

SOLUTIONS

A. Fill in the blanks with different combinations with the verbs given in the brackets to express future time: (Page 21)

- (i) India and China will sign (sign) no war pact.
- (ii) The two girls are going to take (take) the boy to the market.
- (iii) I am going to take (take) a course in dance.
- (iv) Christmas will come (come) in December.
- (v) Our examination is likely to begin (begin) in April.
- (vi) The postman is coming (come) again in the afternoon.
- (vii) The school is to close (close) during summer.
- (viii) Since there has been flood, we are going to face (face) a hard time next year.
- (ix) I am going to book (book) two seats if you are coming (come) with me.
- (x) Who is going to teach (teach) you grammar next year?

জাণৈৰ্য্যক্ৰমত থাওঁ নক্সাৰামত (থাম)

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION (S)

Government of Manipur

B. Fill in the blanks with 'shall/will + be' or 'shall/will + be+ verb ending in -ing':
(Page 22)

- i. I'm going to Senapati at seven o'clock tomorrow morning. I shall be meeting (meet) some old friends.
- ii. The students will be having (have) their examination from the tenth of December next year.
- iii. She will go (go) to a film with her son in the evening.
- iv. Mohen will be singing after the dinner.
- v. The population of India will grow (grow) into double its present size in the next fifteen years.
- vi. Some day the whole world will come (come) under one government.
- vii. We shall be moving (move) out of this building as soon as the new building is completed.
- viii. Someone will be waiting (wait) for us at the airport when we reach there.
- ix. Someday I shall be (be) a police officer.
- x. More and more people will travel (travel) by air in the days to come.

C. Fill in the blanks with the appropriate form of Future Continuous or Future Perfect: (Page 23)

- i. I shall be attending (attend) a meeting at Gandhi Memorial Hall at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.
- ii. I am saving some money every month to buy a computer. By the end of this year, I shall have saved (save) enough to buy.
- iii. By the end of this year, Shimray will have worked (work) in this hospital for twenty years.
- iv. He will be getting married (get married) in January next year.
- v. Siltan will be joining (join) the school after graduation.
- vi. Not many years from now people in several parts of Manipur will be getting (get) electricity from the Hydel Power plants. We shall have built (build) a number of plants by then.
- vii. The school will have moved (move) into its new building by April next year. The contractors will have completed (complete) the building by then.